

OFFICE OF THE
COMMANDING GENERAL

HEADQUARTERS
XVIII AIRBORNE CORPS AND FORT BRAGG
FORT BRAGG, NORTH CAROLINA

16 May 1963

Dear Pat:

Thank you for your note. Certainly I cannot imagine anything pleasanter than having you and Pérot turn up in the Land of the Morning Calm, but it seems a mighty remote possibility, as you would be the first to admit.

I would of course like very much to suffer your brainwashing procedure, not excluding the deep-dish martinis. Ursano of the General Officers Branch is setting up briefings for me in June, and I am certain CIA is included.

I simply don't know how to serve properly in Defense of Peace and Freedom in the Far East without your valued association.

All the best to you both,

HAMILTON H. HOWZE
Lieutenant General, USA
Commanding

Lieutenant General Marshall S. Carter
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence Agency
Department of the Army
